

✓ Training on library services from today

Patna: The Institute of Objective Studies (Patna chapter) is organizing a 5-day training programme on 'Information Communication Technology Application for Strengthening Library Services and e-Granthalaya Digital Agenda' from Monday in collaboration with the National Informatics Centre (NIC), Union ministry of communications and information technology.

Institute's director S F Rab said that the programme will be inaugurated by Patna University VC Sudipto Adhikari on Monday on the institute premises on Exhibition Road. Shamshad Hussain, emeritus professor, will preside over the function while Khuda Baksh Oriental Public Library director Imtiaz Ahmad will be the chief guest. TNN

15/2/12

Times of India
Patna Times.