Army Sub Area at Allahabad gets new library

Rajeev Mani TNN | Nov 7, 2016, 08.37 PM IST

ALLAHABAD: The Sub Area station library was inaugurated by the general officer in commanding (GOC) of HQ Purva UP & MP Sub Area, Maj Gen SK Singh, on Monday. Open for all ranks, their families and civil defence employees, the library is located at Sub Area camp complex in New Cantt.

The library is being opened with the aim of increasing the utilization of the library facilities by all ranks, their families and civil defence employees. The library is located at the main road nearer to family accommodation, informed the Public Relation Officer (PRO), Ministry Of Defence, Group captain Basantkumar B Pande.
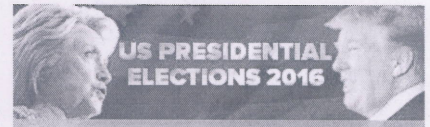

The library is equipped with all the modern library facilities like internet, automated E Granthalaya package, all the prominent English and Hindi News Papers and numerous types of English and Hindi magazines, English and Hindi novel series, military related books, sports, entertainment, carriers, health, civil services exams, engineering, general knowledge and other competitive exam books are available at the library.

The GOC, during interaction at the inaugural ceremony, asked all ranks to provide better education and facility. To the readers and book lovers, he further advised to make the best use of this facility provided at the door step. The rules for membership of the library have been made easy and it is open for all the Cantt members and their families.
Stay updated on the go with Times of India News App. Click here to download it for your device.

RELATED